Re: SB 0233

Signed: April 24, 2017

Effective: November 1, 2017

Topic: Military Leave

Summary: SB 0233 amends existing law regarding military leave for members of the Oklahoma National Guard and US military reservists. Currently the law specifies that these individuals may receive up to 30 calendar days of paid leave from the district. The changes specify that in addition to 30 calendar days, the leave cannot exceed 240 hours.

Districts should review their policies and procedures regarding leave to determine whether any changes are needed. Payroll clerks and similar employees should also be made aware of this change.
